

USEFUL WEBSITES FOR LIFE STORY WORK

www.behindthename.com - Look up the child's name and tell them the meaning - very useful if you do not know why they were given their name.

www.google.com - Great for maps, images etc. You can look up addresses and it will show you on a map.

www.dayofbirth.co.uk - Learn what day of the week someone was born on, and other links www.history.com/t dih - Suitable for older children. Look up what happened on the day they were born.

www.dltk-kids.com/crafts/miscellaneous - Has some very good craft activity books to suit younger children but could be adapted for older children - Includes All About Me books and Family Tree activity.

www.scrapandtell.com - examples of Life Story Book layouts from America.

www.adoptionlifebooks.com - Ideas for Life Story books layouts and other useful articles.

www.fosterclub.com - Great for older kids - 10+. It is an American site but is worth a look.

www.adoptionclubhouse.org - Interactive American site for children aged 8 -13 www.genopro.com/genogram - How to build a genogram. You can also download the package for a trial period and put the information into your computer which will build the genogram for you. Quite complicated.
